FINDINGThere being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:Count 1: Health Care Fraud - 18 U.S.C. § 1347

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The court inquires as to whether there is any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered as follows:

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of eighteen (18) months. The court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that defendant be placed in the facility in Lompoc.

Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with the Judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. Defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state, or federal agency without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
4. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.
5. Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
6. During the supervised release period, defendant shall participate for a period of twelve (12) months in a home detention program which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, or automated identification system and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment. During the period of home detention, defendant shall be permitted to go to and from his place of employment, transport his children to and from school or school activities, and go to his own or his family members' medical or counseling appointments. Defendant shall pay the costs of location monitoring, not to exceed $12 for each day of participation in the electronic monitoring or GPS system. The Probation Officer may waive some or all of the costs if it is determined that defendant does not have the ability to pay. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.

It is ordered that defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,295,699.57 to Medicare. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $100.00, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Interest on the restitution ordered is waived because defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g). All fines are waived as it is found that defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is further ordered that defendant shall surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12:00 noon on December 6, 2016. In the absence of such designation, defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012. Defendant's bond shall be exonerated upon surrender.

Upon request by the government, Counts 2 and 9 of the Indictment are hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
